Dean Academic Affairs
Guru Nanak Dev University,
Amritsar

I am delighted to welcome you to the Department of Education's e - magazine, a platform that showcases the department's academic excellence, innovative research, and community engagement. As the Dean of Academic Affairs, I am proud to see the department's commitment to advancing knowledge, fostering critical thinking, and preparing educators who can positively impact the world. This e-magazine "MINDFUL" highlights the department's achievements, success stories, and best practices, demonstrating its dedication to academic rigor, creativity, and inclusivity.

In the last fifty years, the name of Guru Nanak Dev University has become synonymous with distinction, innovation, reliability and exceptional eminence. It is my honour to serve as the Dean Academic Affairs of the University which is embedded with a humanitarian mission and philanthropic fervour to inspire the youth to achieve brilliance in their chosen fields.

A transparent culture in all fields that enthuses teamwork and zeal to reinforce the vein for exploration to achieve global distinction and quality has brought to Guru Nanak Dev University the status of "Category One" University, besides "University with Potential for Excellence" by UGC and "A++" grade by NAAC.

Facility of on-line admissions, on-line counselling for State Level Admissions, Credit Based Evaluation System, contemporary curriculum, students' participation and involvement in academic and co-curricular works throughout the semester, well-equipped laboratories with modern equipment, collaboration with international and national universities for courses, research projects and conferences, specially designated 'Chairs', organization of national and international seminars at regular intervals, research workshops, bring Guru Nanak Dev University at par with international standards.

I congratulate Prof (Dr) Deepa Sikand Kauts, Dean, Faculty of Education and Prof (Dr) Amit Kauts, Head, Department of Education on this initiative and in celebrating their contributions to the university's academic community.

Best Regards

From the Dean's Desk Faculty of Education

As we continue to shape the future of nation through shaping future teachers, I am delighted to share my thoughts in this edition of our department e-magazine "MINDFUL". Our faculty remains committed to delivering exceptional academics programs, fostering innovative research and cultivating a culture of inclusivity and social responsibility. I would like to acknowledge outstanding accomplishments of our students, faculty and staff, their dedication, creativity and preservance is inspiration for all. As we move forward our focus remains on enhancing students' experience, advancing interdiscilinary research, building strategic partnership and cultivating global citizenship.

This e-magazine portrays the growth of our department accompanying its ethos, and unfolds the imagination and the aspirations of the students. The team of teachers and students worked in coordination to meet the objectives. I feel honoured to be a part of this academic exercise aimed at promoting literary and cultured activities. This magazine has assisted students with presenting their viewpoints, improving their abilities, learning and rehearsing new stuff. At times we see that launching a magazine is oversimplified which in actuality, is not. Behind the success of the magazine lies the hard work of a team which in here are all the members, the mentors who provided them with a lot of on-track support. This piece of literature is meant to add a little more optimism and have a good influence on the reader's life. Also, for some, it would be a sneak peek at what university life feels like. I express my gratitude to all who contributed to achieving this goal.

Prof (Dr) Deepa Sikand

Department of Education

At the outset, I feel truly privileged to lead the Department of Education at Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. It gives me immense pleasure to present this edition of our e-magazine, Mindful, a reflection of the dedication, creativity, and shared efforts of both our esteemed faculty and talented students. This platform not only fosters creative expression but also encourages critical thinking, allowing students to explore and discover their inner selves.

Prof (Dr) Amit Kauts

Head, Department of Education
Guru Nanak Dev University,
Amritsar

Despite the global health challenges we have faced, the unwavering commitment of our team has ensured the successful production of this magazine, showcasing the vision, mission, and goals of the Department of Education. The present edition of Mindful provides an insightful glimpse into our academic activities, including outreach programs, poster-making competitions, ECCE internships, and our collaborations with various institutions. Notable among these are the MoUs signed with Meritorious School, Amritsar (2018), the Ministry of Human Resource Development (2019), and Government Senior Secondary School, Karampura (2021), aimed at promoting teaching, internships, action research, and professional development of pre-service teachers. Our department is committed to producing lifelong learners and future educators who will contribute effectively to the nation's development. With state-of-the-art infrastructural and instructional facilities, including special education labs, psychology labs, and science labs, our students receive comprehensive training. The seminars and workshops conducted under the School of Education in various modes—offline, online, and sustainable—have benefitted over 8,616 participants.

We offer a range of programs, from M.Ed, B.Ed -Special Education (Multiple Disabilities), and B.Sc ECCE, Advanced Diploma in ECCE, Ph.D. and the Integrated Teacher Education Program (ITEP) introduced from the 2023-2024 session onwards. As we strive toward excellence, I extend my heartfelt compliments to the entire team and my best wishes for the continued success of our department. Together, we will achieve greater heights.

ART OF MIND CONTROL

(April 18, 2017)

ISKON SEMINAR

A guest lecture was organized by Department of Education of Guru Nanak Dev University for the students on "Art of Mind Control". The guest lecture was delivered by His Grace Sachinandan Prabhu, a devotee of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON).

Professor Amit Kauts, Head of the department, began the session by emphasizing the importance of balanced development among students as the present education system emphasizes more on mental/ intellectual development. Physical development and spiritual development is badly lacking that is why our youth is suffering from anxiety, depression, mental stress and frustration ultimately leading to value erosion in society.

POSTER PRESENTATION COMPETITION

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 2018

Research scholars presented their posters during the poster presentation competition organized at the Department of Education, GNDU. Posters were judged according to the following criteria: content (poster demonstrates clarity of topic, objective, and background), poster presentation (display aesthetics and logical flow between sections), and understandability (poster is effective even with student explaining it). Judges with relevant expertise reviewed all posters, and winners were selected. First place, second place, and third place awards were presented to winners during a special awards ceremony.

An Internship Journey in Early Childhood Care & Education

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, 2022

The Department of Education at Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, is committed to providing its B.Sc. Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE) students with hands-on, practical learning experiences. The internship program, an integral component of the curriculum, enables students to apply theoretical knowledge in real-world settings, honing their skills in early childhood care. Through structured guidance and immersive engagement in preschools and child care centers, the program ensures that students are well-equipped to foster young minds and contribute meaningfully to the field of early childhood education.

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

AMRITSAR, APRIL 13

Around 500 teachers, heads and scholars from around 20 states participated in an online workshop on Planning and Organising Research using Scopus and Mendeley, organised by School of Education (SOE), GNDU, Amritsar, under the scheme of Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya Nation Mission on Teacher and Training (PMMMNTT), Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Human Resource Development,

Government of India, here on Saturday.

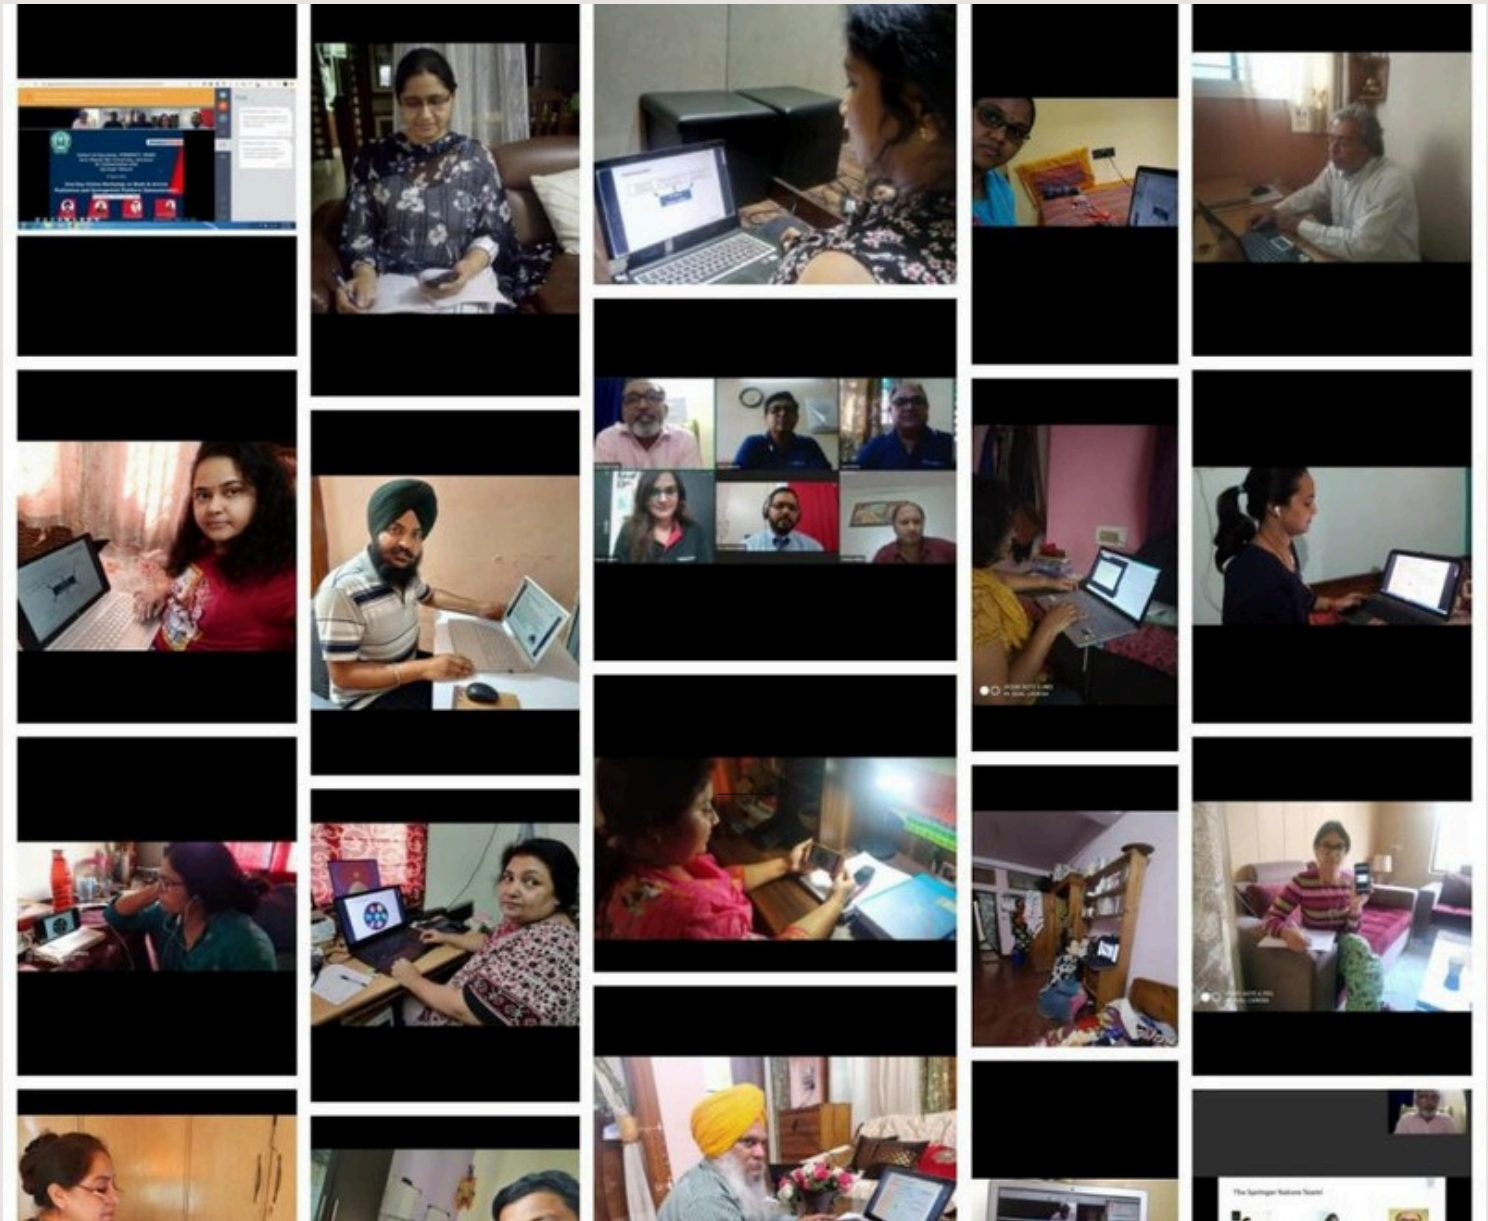

Vice-Chancellor Prof Jaspal Singh Sandhu said in the wake of lockdown, the world is being forced to adapt and find ways to manage a completely remote workforce. "Updating the teachers and research scholars in the 21st century skills from a distance via technology is the best way to boost their productivity and make judicious use of this time," he said.

Prof Amit Kauts, Project Coordinator, School of Education, said sustainable tools, including technology, had become imperative in creating 'research-rich' schools and classrooms. "Teachers need to be equipped to interrogate data and evidence from different sources rather than just describing the data or trends in attainment. The priority for all stakeholders, including the government, national agencies, schools, universities and teachers' organisations, should be to work together to create a national strategy for education and professional learning that reflects the principles of research-informed clinical practice."

Interaction of Dean, Faculty of Education & Head, Department of Education with NCTE officials on sharing best practices for implementing 'Integrated Teacher Education Program (ITEP)'

The future of teacher education lies with Integrated Teacher Education Programmes (ITEP), as recommended by NEP(2020), which is a flagship programme of Government of India. This course will be launched from the session 2023-24 in 41 institutions of Central and state universities of India viz-a-viz B.A.- B.Ed., B.Sc.-B.Ed. and B.Com.- B.Ed( post NEP 2020) and also the admission process will be undertaken by the National Testing Agency (NTA) said by Ms. Kesang Yangzom Sherpa (IRS), Member Secretary, National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) New Delhi , who was the chief guest of the symposium on the theme ' Expectations related to changes in the regulatory and curricular aspects of teacher education programmes under NEP-2020 organized by department of education.

Guru Nanak Dev University has taken a lead to implement all the courses offered by NCTE (A regulatory body) under the able and dynamic leadership of Prof. (Dr.) Jaspal Singh Sandhu. Prof. (Dr.) Deepa Sikand, Dean, Faculty of Education of the University welcomed the chief guest, Ms. Kesang Yangzom Sherpa, Sh. Anil Kumar Convener, 4 year B.Ed. (Yoga), NCTE ,Mr. Abhimanyu Yadav, convener, National Mission for Mentoring, NCTE, Sh. Dinesh Kumar Chaturvedi, Nodal Officer, NEP, NCTE, Prof. Sarabjot Singh Behl, Dean Academic Affair (DAA) of University, Amritsar, and other dignitaries. Prof. Deepa detailed that for effective implementation of NEP(2020), Guru Nanak Dev University, a multidisciplinary university is the first and only state university in north India to have got approval to launch Integrated Teacher Education Programmes (ITEP).

Interaction of Dean, Faculty of Education & Head, Department of Education with NCTE officials on sharing best practices for implementing 'Integrated Teacher Education Program (ITEP)' Contd..

Prof. Sarabjot Singh Behl, delivered the inaugural address. He focused that the objective of the universities should be on creating capacities and individuals with critical thinking for a strong and vibrant education system. Prof (Dr.) Amit Kauts, Head, Department of Education shared the concept note of the symposium with the distinguished guests and also emphasized that changes in the regulatory and curricular aspects will provide a comprehensive, integrated approach to teacher education, combining theoretical knowledge and practical experience to produce well-rounded, competent teachers. The chief guest, Ms. Kesang Yangzom Sherpa, Member Secretary, National Council for Teacher Education while conducting the interaction meet with the attendees talked about the modalities for effective implementation of integrated courses in teacher education. She expressed her concern about the various challenges, one of them being the gap between disciplinary knowledge and pedagogical concerns. Further, she added that the prime focus at this juncture should be to make discipline an internal part of the training to achieve successful amalgamation. Prof. (Dr.) Deepa Sikand, Dean, Faculty of Education concluded the symposium with the remarks that changes in the regulatory and curricular aspects of teacher education programmes under NEP-2020 would help to raise the quality of teacher education which would in turn bring about improvement in school education.
